Old Business: Nothing new on the volunteer mileage issue. Bob will continue to pursue.

LZ Lambeau tickets have been received and will be used for office promotion. 50 tickets have been procured. Combat vets are somewhat hesitant to attend the event. PTSD issues are coming to the surface which makes it hard for them to attend. Also feelings of how the Vietnam vets were originally treated upon their homecoming. They just don't want to relive this. The office is at a point where the tickets need to be distributed because the event will come quick.

New Business: CVSO report distributed and Robert highlighted. Elaborated on high school oracle contest. $18,000 scholarship at stake. Winner of the WI contest gets to compete nationally. Subject material has to be on some aspect of the constitution. Joe again suggested that this CVSO report be put in the monthly county board members packet. Bob will make copies and put on each desk for March meeting and from then on it will be given to the County Clerk to include in packet. If commissioners want the report modified in any way, let Robert know. Robert will be on the Board's agenda for April. Changes in transportation program reiterated.
