Introductions	Dan	Pete Ehlert attending from Sheriff's Dept. He shared his work on social media education to parents and community. He started the social media coalition bringing together law enforcement, child protection services, and schools. One of the goals is to have consistency with how schools and law enforcement are reacting to social media incidents. Another goal is to empower and teach parents how to protect their kids with social media. We discussed potential ways SAP could overlap with social media.
Community assessment	Heidi	Heidi and Brenna attended a week long coalition academy as part of DFC. One of the requirements is to conduct a community assessment. The purpose of
