Greater Fox Valley Opioid Summit

Wednesday, August 21, 2019, 9:00am-3:00pm

Red Lion Paper Valley Hotel
333 W College Ave, Appleton, WI

Save the date and join the Fox Valley Healthcare Readiness Coalition (FV-HERC) and other community organizations to learn more about the impact of the opioid crisis and other substance use on our community, learn about available resources to help families/individuals, and strategies for effective education, prevention and treatment on the opioid epidemic.

This event is targeted towards the first responder community to include but not limited to: law enforcement, EMS, paramedics, volunteer first responders, emergency departments, and fire departments. Recovery, faith-based and community-service organizations are also encouraged to attend.

Registration opening soon! www.fvherc.org/events
