4. Report on update of County Farmland Preservation Plan.

B. O'Rourke stated that the steering committee had met the previous week to view the first draft of the farmland preservation plan map. Staff had conducted three regional meetings in December of 2016, and invitations to the meeting were sent to anyone in the County with a parcel of 40 acres or larger and zoned some form of agriculture. He also sent letters to anyone with A-1 zoning informing them of the plan expiration and work on the new plan. A letter to anyone with 35 acres or larger to all A-2 properties will be sent out in early April giving owners another chance to participate in the plan. Staff intends on conducting a public hearing for the plan at the Committee's July public hearing.

There was no further discussion of this item.

Motion to adjourn by L. Kriescher. Seconded by M. Gabert. Motion carried 5-0.

Meeting adjourned at 8:15 A.M.
