What is an ADRC?

The ADRC is a no-cost, single point of contact for information and assistance. It can help you, or a loved one, sort out available options so you can make an informed decision about how to proceed and be in control of choices affecting your independence. An ADRC is a visible and trusted place to turn to when you have questions about long-term care in Winnebago County.

Who does the ADRC serve?

- Persons over 60 years of age.
- Adults 18 years and older with physical and/or developmental disabilities.
- Family, Caregivers, and others who need information about Long-Term Care programs and services.

What help is available from the ADRC?

- Information and Assistance
- Long Term Care Options Counseling
- Access to Long Term Care Programs
- Benefits Counseling
- Prevention Services
- Adult Protective Services
 - Powers of Attorney
 - Guardianship
 - Involuntary Placement

Do you have information regarding resources?

The ADRC has an up-to-date resource directory listing various agencies throughout Winnebago County.

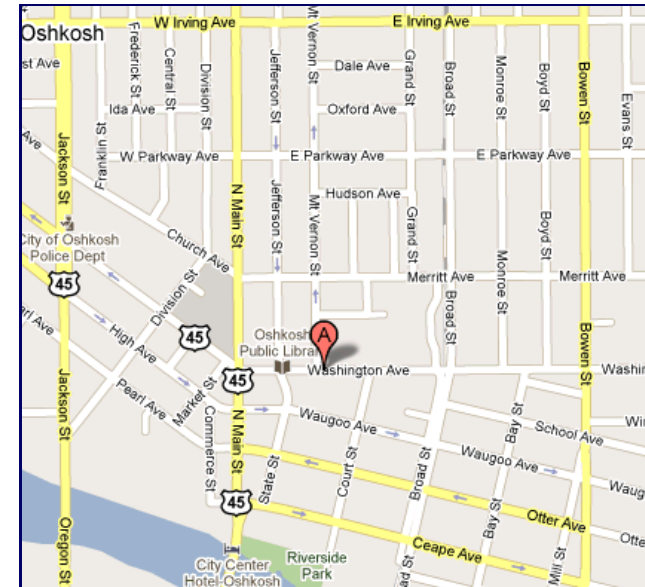

What other information and assistance is available?

The ADRC can provide information and assistance in applying for public assistance programs such as:

- Family Care
- IRIS (Include, Respect, I Self-Direct)
- Other Public Benefits
