Key Points:

- Our CDC community level is now LOW after being in the MEDIUM category for the month of May. This is due to a decrease in total cases.
- Get tested if you are ill or suspect exposure.
- Vaccinate or get your booster if you are not up to date.
- If you are at high risk for severe illness or in contact with people who are high risk, take precautions.

Movement into the LOW Community Level is likely based on decreased testing over the Memorial Day weekend and may not be the most valid indication that virus activity in the community is lower.*
