

Process to obtain a temporary use permit.

- Because of the uniqueness of temporary uses, we are only one application is required per applicant. Please note that the applicant does not have to be the property owner; however, the property owner(s) will need to sign the application if an agent is applying on their behalf.
- All parcel numbers must be listed on the application
- Applicants are required to contact the County Sheriff's Department and the County Health Department regarding their proposed use(s). Any approvals required by these departments must be obtained prior to applying for the County Zoning temporary use permit. Zoning Staff will verify approvals or confirmation of contact with these departments at the time of permit review.
